How to establish a Broker/Agent Profile

PROPRIETARY & CONFIDENTIAL

Multi-factor Authentication

• There are two stages of multi-factor authentication in claiming your Pennie account

1) Multi-factor authentication is required by Pennie to claim a broker account. Note: It is highly recommended that you utilize a telephone number that directly connects to your phone (direct phone without IVR; or mobile device)

2) For customer security, Pennie highly recommends the use of Duo Mobile app as the primary means of multi-factor authentication. Click here for a how-to guide

PROPRIETARY & CONFIDENTIAL

Setting Up Your Broker Account

• If you a member of an agency, you will receive this alert

I am a member of an agency...what now?

If you are a member of an agency, your account will need to be created by your Agency Manager (sometimes referred to as the Principal):

Contact your Agency Manager to add yourself to the agency account

Once added to the account, an email notification will be sent to you with a secure link to log in and claim your account under your agency

If your agency is not already set up in Pennie, an Agency Manager will need to be established in order for you and other brokers to be set up within the agency.

Setting Up Your Broker Account

• Once your agency manager adds you to the agency and sends you your account claiming link, continue to the next slide
